

TOURISM IN FIGURES 2017

Dear,

The guidelines and goals of our country's overall tourism development are set by the Tourism Development Strategy of the Republic of Croatia until 2020, as well as action plans that are actively implemented. Increasing attractiveness and competitiveness with the intent to make Croatia one of the 20 leading tourist destinations in the world are highlighted as the most important goals.

We are on the right path to achieving the goal, witnessing a record-breaking tourist year behind us, with 13% more tourist arrivals and 11% more nights spent than in the previous year. The increase in tourist movements has been recorded for all 12 months so we are not talking about the season, but the whole year's tourism, thanks to the constant investments in expanding and enriching the tourist offer. The emphasis is on the quality and positioning of Croatia as an aviation destination, which contributes to the popularity and attractiveness of the country.

It should be emphasized that the Croatian's government policy, headed by Prime Minister Andrej Plenković, is directed, among other things, on the strengthening of tourism, which has a significant share in GDP - with almost 20% of revenues.

Cooperation and partnership between the Ministry of Tourism, the Croatian Tourist Board and other stakeholders from the public and private sectors resulted, inter alia, with the adoption of numerous legislative changes such as the tax breakdown of all entrepreneurs, which provide their seasonal workers with accommodation and warm meal, human resource quality support programs, as well as tourism-oriented promotion activities.

Growth trends also refers to tourism revenues, that are amounted to nearly HRK 80 billion in 2017, which further points to the importance and impact that tourism has for the Croatian economy.

As a result, the efforts of the Ministry of Tourism are aimed at keeping a positive atmosphere and growth trends as well as further advancement in all areas directly or indirectly linked to tourism, in order to enable more competitive entrepreneurship in tourism, stimulate new investments, achieve better conditions for tourism employees, provide our guests with a quality holiday, and further stimulate the entire Croatian economy.

Therefore, we believe in the strength of Croatian tourism and we are moving further exclusively in a positive direction.

Welcome to Croatia!
